USAID HUMAN RIGHTS IN ACTION PROGRAM UPDATES

HUMAN RIGHTS MONITORING, ANALYTICAL ACTIVITY AND ADVOCACY

In one sentence: Activities under USAID Human Rights in Action Program's and its experts' participation aimed at overcoming consequences of the armed conflict and occupation (links are in Ukrainian)

- UHHRU/USAID Program's Pavlichenko delivered an interview on some of Crimea's future de-occupation aspects, particularly what to do when it comes to residents moved into the peninsula as part of Kremlin's colonization plan in an attempt to replace regime-disloyal Ukrainians.
- The Prosecutor General Venediktova removed the Deputy Prosecutor General Gunduz Mamedov from coordinating the work on armed conflict's crimes investigation – civil society organizations, including UHHRU, consider this a threat to the Prosecutor General Office's War Crimes Department and investigations held therein.

Other related activities by UHHRU in brief (links are in Ukrainian):

- UHHRU in conjunction with other co-authors announce fresh Crimea Beyond Rules issue, already the 6th one – this time it is devoted to occupied property in Crimea or how the RF as de-facto authority ignores property rights in the peninsula. Please use this link for more details, while the issue itself will be available on our website, library section, later (follow the updates).<sup>1</sup>
- UHHRU joined public video address in support of persons kidnapped amidst Crimea's occupation – human rights campaigners believe at least 44 persons have gone missing since 2014, while health status and whereabouts of 15 of them still remain undiscovered. Sharing and spreading awareness is highly appreciated!

STRATEGIC LITIGATIONS

Within this direction USAID Human Rights in Action Program supports strategic legal cases domestically and internationally to protect public interests<sup>2</sup>, as well as assures their broad media coverage among professional community and public. Total number of the conflict-related cases, which have been supported by UHHRU's Strategic Litigation Centre (SLC) within the Program is over 200.

<sup>1</sup> To remind, Crime Beyond Rules is an analytical digest to depict Kremlin's war crimes and blatant human rights violations amidst Crimea's annexation – every issue is devoted to a particular problematic and is accompanied by legal analysis (full compilation of previous issues is stored here).

<sup>2</sup> Strategic litigations are one of the most powerful tools of human rights protection; conducted in the interests of a citizen or a group of citizens to achieve systemic changes in the legal field for the benefit of society and used for the purpose of creating the case-law (precedents).

Ukrainian mayor of an occupied city. The story of the unlawfully removed Mayor Igor Skliarov continues

The applicant was unlawfully dismissed from the post of mayor by representatives of the so-called “DPR”, after which he, assisted by UHHRU/Program’s lawyers, applied to the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) asking to declare his dismissal unlawful, reinstate him and award him damages. Purely to remind, here is an explanation concerning so far ineffectual domestic-level travails of this case (link is in Ukrainian).

Other related activities by UHHRU in brief:

- Applications to the ECtHR

- ✓ The applicants complained against their illegal transfer from Crimea to Russia. Since the Crimean Peninsula is Ukraine’s territory, forced displacement of Ukrainian citizens from there, under any pretext, is a violation of international law.
- ✓ The applicant lodged a complaint against Ukraine and Russia in connection with two injuries that he had sustained in course of clashes between the Armed Forces of Ukraine and illegal armed groups of the so-called “LPR”, as well as the ineffectiveness of investigation of these crimes.

- Fresh evidence of Kremlin-committed war crimes against pre-conflict prisoners has been submitted to International Criminal Court

In their submission, UHHRU in conjunction with Regional Center for Human Rights and Crimean Prosecutor’s Office highlighted (link is in Ukrainian) the situation concerning illegal transfer of pre-conflict prisoners from Crimea to the RF to continue serving their sentences there (275 persons totally). These Ukrainians represent a particularly vulnerable group, which stays under full control of the occupying power, suffering not only from forced relocation, but also from non-adequate medical care, as well as imposition of the Russian citizenship.

FREE LEGAL AID

UHHRU network of legal aid centers (LACs) keeps on delivering free legal aid (including outreach legal consultations in the remote areas), holding information and awareness raising events in the sphere of human rights as well as documenting war crimes and conflict-related human rights abuse. USAID supports activities of the UHHRU’s legal aid centers in Toretsk, Mariupol, Kramatorsk, Pokrovsk of Donetsk oblast, Stanytsa Luhanska, Sumy and Dnipro providing legal aid to conflict-affected population, as well as a Kyiv-based Specialized LAC targeting both Crimean and Donbas residents and IDPs from their along with a Specialized Crimea-oriented LAC in Kherson.

Events to raise people's awareness on how to protect their rights (links are in Ukrainian)

- Pokrovsk LAC explains new subsidy rules as number of baffled people from conflict-affected communities increases.
- Kherson-based LAC hosted an online Q&A session to consult conflict-affected people, especially in light of the recently changed rules for crossing the entry-exit checkpoints (including those located on the administrative border between the temporarily occupied Crimea and Kherson Oblast).
- New law signed to relax pressure/responsibility on travelers from/to temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine – in a new post, our lawyers have answered the most frequent questions they get on this matter. Feel free to ask your own question if you feel the need for additional information!
- Mariupol LAC clarifies the concept of notary's writ of execution: what it is and what consequences it can entail for IDPs.

Legal assistance to those affected by the armed conflict and occupation (links are in Ukrainian)

- UHHRU/USAID Program was contacted by Victoria, an IDP from Makiyivka. As a result of her husband's illness, the couple was forced to move to temporarily occupied Makiyivka, where he passed away. Victoria decided to replace her retirement pension with a pension paid in connection with the loss of her breadwinner; to do this, she had to go to court. The case was handled by our Pokrovsk LAC. "More and more often the Pension Fund of Ukraine (PFU) refuses to pay social benefits in such cases in order to save money. People aren't always willing to uphold their rights in court," suggests the LAC's coordinator Artem Bezruk, encouraging everyone in situations like these to seek legal assistance.
- Debt should not be accrued on non-payment of utilities of substandard quality if a consumer has filed an appropriate complaint in accordance with established procedure, as our LAC from the frontline town of Toretsk managed to prove in court. Our LAC was contacted by Oleksiy, who asked for a consultation: the local office of the municipal company Teplokomunenergo applied to court to collect a debt for heating services from him. However, not only was the sum unreasonably high for a pensioner (roughly UAH 15K including penalties), but no reasonable grounds existed to make him pay it.
- Nadiya, mother of a deceased volunteer soldier from Dnipro, applied to PFU to change her pension scheme: from a regular pension to a pension paid in connection with the loss of her breadwinner, but was denied twice. Our lawyer helped Nadiya find justice, suggesting: “The incompetence of PFU employees can be qualified as conduct by an official that is contrary to his duties. Nadiya had been trying to exercise her rights since 2020 but had been unable to, and not because the law has no provision for it, but because specific officials are unfamiliar with the legislation they work with and don’t bother to study it.”

HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION AND AWARENESS RAISING

UHHRU keeps on organizing human rights training events as well as formulating a comprehensive national human rights education policy. This activity is implemented under Ukraine-wide Educational Program “We Understand Human Rights” (WUHR)<sup>3</sup>, which is being the only informal educational system that has the material basis for its activities – Educational Human Rights House-Chernihiv.

UHHRU/USAID Program finished another cycle of our training course “Protecting human rights under situation of the armed conflict in Ukraine” for proactive lawmen (links are in Ukrainian)

Ukrainian lawyers and judges have been granted a mighty weapon – deep knowledge of the correlation between international humanitarian law (IHL) and international human rights law, as well as of the proper way to deal with cases related to the armed conflict and the temporary occupation of Crimea. We are deeply grateful to the participants for the time they chose to devote to their training, and to our partners without whom this undertaking would not have been possible. If you are still hesitant whether to join the next training cycle, you can listen to what the participants have to say about their experience with us, or read a related publication.

<sup>3</sup> Launched in 2007, the Program envisages development of informal human rights education, contributing to cultivating a human rights culture, strengthening respect for the rule of law in Ukraine, promoting intercultural understanding and principles of peaceful conflict resolution. The Program currently counts more than 3,500 alumni from all regions of Ukraine.

Human rights amidst warfare: expert discussions of human rights professionals and activists

One way or another, the armed conflict affects every one of us, bringing deaths, loss of health and property, as well as economic and psychological damage to our fellow citizens. To make matters worse, human rights violations are being committed in the temporarily occupied territory almost on a daily basis. A regional meeting was held for the graduates of UHHRU/USAID Program's training activities as part of the Human Rights Education Fest – following tradition, lawyers from different cities came together to share experiences (link in Ukrainian) and views on how to ensure observance of human rights amidst the war and the challenges that our country faces.

As IHL theme spikes amidst Ukraine's conflict, teachers at secondary schools learn how to convey knowledge on IHL – UHHRU/USAID Program forms a pool of educators to boost process (links are in Ukrainian)

UHHRU/USAID Program continues its cooperation with the Ukrainian Red Cross Society, in particular on human rights and IHL education. We already have some remarkable results to show here: almost 30 educators recently received certificates confirming that they are qualified to train their peers in teaching IHL to 9-12-grade school students.

To further expand their knowledge of IHL and the methodology for teaching this subject, the participants were provided with necessary literature and were also invited to IHL training organized by our project partner, URCS. If you'd like to be informed of any future possible training events, keep an eye out for announcements or contact us.
